ORDER CONCLUDING PROCEEDINGS<sup>1</sup>

On September 20, 2016, petitioner filed a petition under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-10-34 (2012), alleging that influenza (“flu”) vaccine administered on September 4, 2015 caused his hives, bilateral lower extremity swelling, bloating, and shortness of breath. See Pet. ¶¶ 3, 4.

On March 8, 2017, petitioner filed a Notice of Voluntary Dismissal under Vaccine Rule 21(a)(1)(A).

DISCUSSION

Under Vaccine Rule 21(a)(1)(A), petitioner may engage in a voluntary dismissal by making a motion for dismissal at any time before service of respondent's Rule 4(c) Report, which petitioner has done in the instant action.

Under Vaccine Rule 21(a)(3), the result of this voluntary dismissal is an Order Concluding Proceedings. No judgment will enter pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11 for purposes of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-21(a).

CONCLUSION

This petition is DISMISSED. The clerk of the court is directed to remove this case from the docket of the undersigned.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
